

Making Sense of Motherhood

In a Post-Christian Culture

Titus 2:3-5

Why Teach on Making Sense of Motherhood Today?

- Because it is culturally RELEVANT since it's Mother's Day!
- Because it is practically NEEDED in light of the moral confusion of a post-Christian culture.
- Because it is biblically COMMANDED in Titus 2:1, 3-5, 15.

This Is Where the Authority to Teach on the Role of Motherhood Comes from in a Post-Christian Culture!

Not from personal experience or expertise and not from cultural norms or man-made traditions.

Four Truths for Making Sense of Motherhood

1. MOMS...Learn to EMBRACE Your Role from God's Perspective!

"Teaching what is good" (2:3; see also Titus 1:16; 2:7, 14; 3:1, 5, 8, 14; 1Timothy 2:10; 5:10)

From God's Perspective...

 - 2) Being an example of godly living for your family. (2:7)
 - 3) Being zealous to fulfill your role and goals as a mother. (2:14)
 - 4) Being prepared to do whatever being a mom takes or calls for with a surrendered heart. (3:1)

 - 2) One that involves everything you are as a wife and mother – (2:7)
 - 3) One that does not rebel against God's law but is zealous to do what Jesus saved us to be and do - (2:14)
 - 4) One that is fully prepared to submit to all God-given authorities- (3:1)
 - 5) One that is done in the power of the Spirit and not our own flesh - (3:5)
 - 6) One that is very intentional about doing what will profit others - (3:8)
 - 7) One that bears fruit by meeting pressing needs – (3:14)
